

The Russellville Police Department Records Office is responsible for many tasks. Some of those tasks include filing reports and submitting documents to the courts and the State. The Records Office is also where you go to get a copy of a police report. Normal business hours for the Records Office is Monday - Friday 8am -4:30pm.

